Revised and updated tentative ruling as of 10/6/20. The court has reviewed debtor's status report filed on 10/6/20, detailing the progress made in preparing an amended disclosure statement. Debtor stated that he filed a notice of claims bar date of 10/30/20, which the court notes was filed on 8/17/20, stating it was filed pursuant to LBR 9013-1(q) governing motions to set a bar date. Upon review of the case docket, the court did not see that debtor filed a motion for the court to set a bar date under LBR 9013-1(q). The court must actually set a bar date by order pursuant to FRBP 3003((c)(3), which is usually done on motion, which has not been filed. Also, the court can on its own initiative set a bar date by order as noted in LBR 3003-1(a), but the court does not recall doing so. Apparently, the claims bar date of 10/30/20 noticed by debtor without a court order may not be valid unless there is a remedial court order validating the date. Debtor should explain that if the court ordered the bar date of 10/30/20, how it was done because it does not appear on the docket that there was a motion or a court ruling sua sponte. If the court has not ordered the bar date of 10/30/20, debtor may request that the court do so at the status conference. Otherwise, no tentative ruling on the merits. Appearances are required on 10/7/20, but counsel and self-represented parties must appear by telephone.

Revised and updated tentative ruling as of 10/20/20. The court has reviewed debtor's declaration filed on 10/20/20 as a follow-up to the post-confirmation status report, filed on 10/7/20, stating that he is current on plan obligations and that he needs more time to address issues with certain creditors before he will be able to file a motion for final decree, requesting a short continuance of the status conference. Having considered debtor's declaration and status report, the court on its own motion continues the status conference to 12/2/20 at 11:00 a.m., waives the requirement of a written status report for 12/2/20 and debtor may report on status orally at that time. No appearances are required on 10/21/20.

The court on its own motion continues the hearing on the pending motion to 12/9/20 at 2:00 p.m. in light of the recent voluminous filing of the parties on 11/30/20, two days before the scheduled hearing, consisting of a 44 page discovery dispute stipulation and two packets of exhibits totaling over 600 pages. Given the short time before the hearing that these documents were filed, the court will need some reasonable time to review the documents for the hearing. No appearances are required on 12/2/20.

Prior tentative ruling as of 11/16/20. Off calendar. Continued by stipulation and order to 12/2/20 at 2:30 p.m. No appearances are required on 11/18/20.

Prior tentative ruling as of 10/27/20. Off calendar. Continued by stipulation and order to 11/18/20 at 2:30 p.m. No appearances are required on 10/28/20.

Prior tentative ruling as of 10/26/20. The court is not inclined to rule on the motion to compel discovery at this time because the motion is not ripe for adjudication as compliance with LBR 7026-1(c) requiring a joint discovery dispute stipulation is lacking. Also, apparently, the parties have not had a discovery dispute conference pursuant to LBR 7026-1(c). Preliminarily, the same concerns regarding movant's FRBP 2004 examination of the plan agent and the reorganized debtor are probably applicable here either based on issue preclusion or the law of the case doctrine. Otherwise, no tentative ruling on the merits, and the court is inclined to continue or vacate the hearing so that the parties may comply with LBR 7026-1(c). Appearances are required on 10/28/20, but counsel and self-represented parties must appear by telephone.
