#2.00 Emergency Motion of Plaintiff Chapter 7 Trustee for Preliminary Injunction

fr. 9/2/21

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

For the purposes of the Emergency Motion and the hearing today, the primary concern is preserving all of the bankruptcy estate's interest in the vehicle (whatever that may be), i.e. verifying that the vehicle is fully insured and that the vehicle is located where it will not be damaged, moved or altered, in any way, unless and until the Court authorizes its relocation or alteration.

If the vehicle is fully insured and will remain immobile, and in a protected location, such that the Court will allow the vehicle to stay where it is now, the Court will require that the chapter 7 trustee and/or her agents, each of whom will be specifically identified by name in an order of the Court, must have access to inspect the vehicle in that location, on reasonably short notice, and to whom and how that notice must be given.
