#101.00 Hearing to Consider Approval of Disclosure Statement to accompany Second Amended Chapter 11 Plan Of Reorganization

fr: 2-11-26

Docket 41

Courtroom Deputy:

ZoomGov Appearance by:

2/10/26 - David Shevitz

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for February 11, 2026:

Debtor needs to make the corrections set forth in his notice of errata. Court previously noted the problem with a plan that paid student loan claims in full and provided a less favorable treatment to general unsecured claims. However, if the court is reading the amended plan correctly, it appears that the debtor is now intending to pay general unsecured claims in full over a period of 96 months and to pay the student loan claims in full over 204 months. Is that correct? If so, the language at the bottom of page 3 of the disclosure statement that refers to a 20 percent payout to the holders of unsecured claims needs to be revised.

What is the disclosure statement saying about a new value contribution? There is an incomplete sentence at the end of that section (on page 7 at line 8 of the clean draft). (If debtor pays unsecured claims with interest, they will be paid in full and, even in a cramdown scenario, will not need to make a new value contribution.)

Section G on page 11 still needs work. Why is there a discussion of section 1115? This isn't a subchapter V case in which this section comes into play if the plan is to be confirmed nonconsensually. (See section 1186(a).) The section the debtor should be discussing is 1129(a)(15).

This section should explain that, if a creditor objects, the debtor must demonstrate that he has satisfied the requirements of this section and how the debtor claims he has done so. Has the debtor satisfied the requirements of this section? The plan does not provide for unsecured creditors to receive interest on their claims and, therefore, creditors aren't being given the value of their claims as of the effective date of the plan. The other way to satisfy this section is to show that the value of the property to be distributed under the plan is not less than the debtor's projected disposable income to be received during the 5-year period beginning on the date the first payment is due under the plan, or during the period for which the plan provides payments, whichever is longer.

Hearing required.

Final Ruling for February 11, 2026:

Continue hearing to March 4, 2026 at 11:00 a.m. Debtor should serve and file amended plan and disclosure statement by February 23, 2026. Objections will be due by February 27, 2026.

Tentative Ruling for March 4, 2026:

As of the afternoon of February 26, 2026, debtor had not filed amended plan and disclosure statement.
