Judge Bluebond seeks to maintain a courtroom environment (both online and in person) in which all persons are treated with dignity and respect, irrespective of their gender identity, expression or preference. To that end, individuals appearing before the Court are invited to identify their preferred pronouns (e.g., he, she, they, etc.) and their preferred honorific (e.g., Mr., Miss, Ms., Mrs., Mx, M, etc.). Individuals may do so by advising the Courtroom Deputy or Judge prior to any appearance and/or, in the case of remote hearings, by providing this information in the person's screen name in ZoomGov.

#3.00 Notice of motion and motion for relief from automatic stay with supporting declarations ACTION IN NON-BANKRUPTCY FORUM RE: California Superior Court; Quiet Title and Equitable Lien; Warren Navarre v. Diana Knox et al.

MOVANT: Warren Navarre

Docket 50

Courtroom Deputy:

- NONE LISTED -

Tentative Ruling:

Deny motion. Bankruptcy court has exclusive jurisdiction to determine what is and is not property of a bankruptcy estate. Disputes as to who is actually the true owner of the property must be resolved in bankruptcy court, and the trustee has already filed an action in bankruptcy court to obtain the required adjudication. (Moreover, movant failed to serve required party -- the debtor.)

NOTE: The Court grants the trustee's request that it take judicial notice of Exhibits A through D and F and G. On what basis is it appropriate for the Court to take judicial notice of Exhibit E?

#4.00 Notice of motion and motion for relief from the automatic stay with supporting declarations ACTION IN NONBANKRUPTCY FORUM RE: Diaz vs Heredia et al., U.S District Court Central District Docket No.5:20-cv-02332 JWH-KK

MOVANT: Ralph Heredia & Heredia Boxing Management

Docket 23

Courtroom Deputy:

- NONE LISTED -

Tentative Ruling:

The claims that movants seek to adjudicate in state court are described in the motion as claims for breach of contract, yet paragraph 4(d) of the motion asserts that these claims are nondischargeable in nature. Claims for breach of contract are generally dischargeable. Movants have not filed a nondischargeability action. Have movants filed a proof of claim in the chapter 7 case? Has the trustee filed an objection to the claim? If not, why do movants need to litigate these claims anywhere? Movants should file a proof of claim. If and when trustee files an objection to that claim, movants can renew their motion for relief from stay. Or, if there truly are nondischargeable claims, movants should file an action seeking to have their claims excepted from the discharge and thereafter renew this motion. In the meantime, there seems to be no reason whatsoever to grant the requested relief as there is no need for litigation on these claims to proceed anywhere at this time.

What is the status of this matter? Set deadline for filing of responses to first amended cross-complaint. How long do the parties anticipate it will take to conduct discovery? Hearing required.

9/2/20 -- Court signed scheduling order with following dates:

L/D for cross-complainants to file second amended cross-complaint -- 9/11/20

L/D to file joint status report -- October 20, 2020

Cont'd status conference -- November 3, 2020 at 2:00 p.m.

Tentative Ruling for November 3, 2020:

Where is joint status report that should have been filed by October 20, 2020? How much time do the parties need to conduct discovery? Is this an appropriate matter to be sent to an early mediation? Hearing required.

Tentative Ruling for December 1, 2020:

If court grants motion to dismiss (number 214), the number of claims asserted in this adversary proceeding will be reduced and the parties' responses to the questions posed in the status report may be different. Continue status conference approximately 60 to 90 days and require parties to file an updated status report. (The parties should respond to all questions raised by the status report.)

Tentative Ruling for February 2, 2021:

Parties have already completed a day of mediation. Discuss with parties whether additional mediation would be helpful. Does either party contemplate being in a position to bring any pretrial motions? Set discovery cutoff and continue case status conference.

2/9/21 -- Court approved scheduling order with following dates:

L/D to complete discovery -- December 17, 2021

Tentative Ruling for March 30, 2021:

Discuss with parties whether it might be a good time to make another attempt at resolving this matter through mediation.

Tentative Ruling for June 29, 2021:

Plaintiff checked the box, "no," in response to the question, "Do you want this matter sent to mediation at this time." Defendant checked the box marked, "yes." In the comments section, plaintiff states that it thinks a mediation in September could be useful. It seems, therefore, that the issue is when a continued mediation should occur, not whether. Is that correct? Hearing required.

7/6/21 -- Court approved scheduling order setting following dates:

Cont'd status conference -- October 12, 2021 at 2:00 p.m.

L/D to file joint status report -- September 28, 2021

L/D to lodge order appointing mediators -- July 16, 2021

L/D to complete another day of mediation through mediation program -- October 12, 2021.

7/30/21 -- Court approved order appointing mediators.

Tentative Ruling for October 14, 2021:

Extend nonexpert discovery cutoff to March 15, 2022. Continue status conference approximately 90 to 120 days.

10/22/21 -- Court approved scheduling order with following dates:

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling from September 12, 2023:

Assuming defendant still has not produced the requested documents or appeared for a deposition, enter an order requiring the production of documents by a date certain and defendant's appearance at a deposition on or by a date certain and set continued hearing to assess defendant's compliance. If defendant has not provided the requested documents and appeared for his deposition, grant request that his answer be stricken and plaintiff permitted to proceed by way of default.

Final Ruling from September 12, 2023:

Defendant served supplemental response on August 25, 2023, 10 days after motion was filed. Defendant still has not agreed to a date for his deposition. Continue hearing to October 17, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. to assess whether defendant has sufficiently cooperated with discovery.

Tentative Ruling:

Plaintiff filed unilateral status reports on August 10 and 11, 2023. These are late and unilateral status reports were not accompanied by a declaration, as required by local rules; however, there is a more fundamental problem. Summons was issued on June 12, 2023 and not served until August 10, 2023. Therefore, the summons was stale at the time it was served. Plaintiff needs to procure alias/replacement summons and serve it before it becomes stale.

What is the connection between the two cases pending before the California Supreme Court identified in the status report and this adversary proceeding?

ZoomGov Appearance by:

6/3/24 - Servando Rivera

Tentative Ruling:

This is a 523 action. There is no right to a jury trial and the bankruptcy court has authority to enter a final order without the consent of both parties.

Parties are to file a JOINT status report. Plaintiff's counsel should contact defendant farther in advance of the deadline for filing report to facilitate this. Defendant should return the call.

Both parties have requested that matter be sent to mediation. Continue status conference approximately 90 to 120 days and order parties to complete a day of mediation under court's mediation program prior to date of continued status conference.

Chapter 7

Where is status report that should have been filed by May 21, 2024? Did parties complete a day of mediation as ordered by the Court? If not, why not? If so, what was the result? Did the parties reach a settlement? Hearing required.

Final Ruling for June 4, 2024:

Continue status conference to July 2, 2024 at 2:00 p.m to give plaintiff an opportunity to file settlement documents.

Tentative Ruling for July 2, 2024:

The parties have lodged a stipulation for dismissal of the adversary proceeding and reservation of jurisdiction to enforce settlement agreement. At the court's request, counsel for plaintiff has filed a copy of the parties' settlement agreement, but he did not redact all or any part of the account number of the bank account to which defendants are to direct their settlement payments. Court is prepared to approve order dismissing action, but, if plaintiff is planning to file the motion required to seal this docket entry [Court form F9037-1.MOTIONON RESTRICTEDPERID.pdf] and file the settlement agreement again in a form that redacts all but the last few digits of the account number, the court should leave this adversary proceeding open until plaintiff's counsel has accomplished this. Continue status conference to give plaintiff's counsel an opportunity to file the motion necessary to seal the version of the settlement agreement that discloses personal identifying information that should remain confidential.

Courtroom Deputy:

ZoomGov Appearance by:

10/16/23 - Jennifer Keating

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling from February 9, 2021:

Deny motion without prejudice as premature, or continue hearing until state court action has been resolved and debtor's liabilities have been liquidated. Court cannot make a determination that a judgment that has not yet been entered, once entered, will be nondischargeable. Court needs to see what the state court actually decides to ascertain whether or not any judgment for plaintiff that may be produced is nondischargeable. In the alternative, plaintiff could prove up its damages in this adversary proceeding, but plaintiff has not attempted to do so in this motion. At this point, there aren't any debts that can be declared nondischargeable.

Final Ruling for February 9, 2021:

Continue hearing to November 9, 2021 at 2:00 p.m. as a status conference.
(Date later moved by Court to November 18, 2021.)

least November of 2022. Continue status conference until late November, 2022.

Final Ruling for May 31, 2022:

Continue status conference to October 25, 2022 at 2:00 p.m. Parties are to file a joint status report by October 11, 2022.

Tentative Ruling for October 25, 2022:

Nothing has been filed since June of 2022. What is the status of the state court action? Hearing required.

Final Ruling for October 25, 2022:

Continue hearing to January 31, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. Plaintiff should serve notice of continuance. Criminal sentencing scheduled to happen on November 22, 2022.

Tentative Ruling for January 31, 2023:

Plaintiff is using the wrong status report form. Parties should use the bankruptcy court's mandatory form for a status report. Perhaps the form that plaintiff used was a district court form?

Discuss with plaintiff an appropriate date for continued status conference.

Final Ruling for January 31, 2023:

Continue status conference to May 9, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. Plaintiff should file and serve an updated status report not later than April 25, 2023.

Tentative Ruling for May 9, 2023:

Where is the status report that should have been filed by April 25, 2023? What, if any, progress has been made in the state court action? Hearing required.

Tentative Ruling for November 5, 2019:

A status report is not required when the defendant has not responded to the complaint, and, in any event, counsel should not use Judge Zurzolo's form of status report for this judge. Counsel should also be aware that it is inappropriate for an attorney to file a declaration attesting to his personal knowledge of facts that are not within his personal knowledge. Counsel should have prepared this declaration for his paralegal's signature.

Courtroom Deputy:

ZoomGov Appearance by:

6/7/24 - Alana Anaya

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative Ruling for June 11, 2024:

Local Bankruptcy Rule 7055-1(b) provides as follows:

Motion for Default Judgment.

(1) Form of Motion. A motion for default judgment must state:

(A) The identity of the party against whom default was entered and the date of entry of default;

(B) Whether the defaulting party is an infant or incompetent person and, if so, whether that person is represented by a general guardian, committee, conservator, or other representative;

(C) Whether the individual defendant in default is currently on active duty in the armed forces of the United States, based upon an appropriate declaration in compliance with the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (50 U.S.C. §§ 3901-4043).

(D) When the individual defendant is the debtor, the party seeking the default may rely upon the debtor's sworn statements contained in a statement of financial affairs, by following the appropriate procedure for requesting judicial notice of that document pursuant to F.R.Evid. 201; and

(E) That notice of the motion has been served on the defaulting

(4) Attorneys' Fees.

(A) When a promissory note, contract, or applicable statute provides a basis for the recovery of attorneys' fees, a reasonable attorneys' fee may be allowed in a default judgment. Subject to subsection (b)(4)(B), the reasonableness of the attorneys' fee will be calculated based upon the amount of the judgment, exclusive of costs, according to the following schedule:

Amount of Judgment Attorneys' Fees Award
	$0.01 - $1,000 30% with a minimum of $250
	$1,000.01 - $10,000 $300 plus 10% of the amount over $1,000
$10,000	$10,000.01- $50,000 $1,200 plus 6% of the amount over
$50,000	$50,000.01- $100,000 $3,600 plus 4% of the amount over
	Over $100,000 $5,600 plus 2% of the amount over $100,000

(B) An attorney seeking fees in excess of the schedule may request in the motion for default judgment to have a reasonable attorneys' fee fixed by the court. The court will hear the request and render judgment for such fee as the court may deem reasonable.

The motion does not contain the information required by LBR 7055-1(b)(1)(B) and (C). Continue hearing to give plaintiff an opportunity to file amended motion containing the required information.

Does plaintiff intend to rely on the fee schedule set forth in the local rules or does plaintiff plan to file a motion seeking an award for a higher amount?

Hearing required.

Final Ruling for February 28, 2023:

Slotkin attempted to appear by video. Trustee did not appear. Court continued status conference to September 26, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. and ordered trustee to file status report by September 12, 2023. Court issued a notice of continued hearing, which advised the parties, among other things, that only in person appearances will be permitted at the continued hearing and that appearance by telephone or video would not be permitted.

Tentative Ruling for September 26, 2023:

At request of trustee, continue status conference to November 7, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. Trustee should file an updated status report not later than October 24, 2023. APPEARANCES WAIVED on September 26, 2023.

10/23/23 -- Court approved stipulation dismissing following claims for relief with prejudice as against all parties:

Chapter 7

In light of pendency of appeal, and dismissal of all remaining claims, continue status conference to April 23, 2024 at 2:00 p.m. to give Circuit an opportunity to resolve appeal. Parties should file joint status report not later than April 9, 2024. If appeal has not been resolved by that date, parties may request further continuance in status report. APPEARANCES WAIVED ON NOVEMBER 7, 2023.

Tentative Ruling for April 23, 2024:

Ninth Circuit issued its judgment affirming the bankruptcy court's ruling in this matter on March 14, 2024. The procedural rules of the Supreme Court give the defendant until 90 days after the entry of judgment to file a petition for a writ of certiorari. This Court does not know whether the defendant intends to file a petition for a writ of certiorari, but it would seem premature to close this adversary proceeding until this 90 day period has run. Therefore, continue status conference to July 2, 2024 at 2:00 p.m. to provide an opportunity for that 90-day period to run. Plaintiff should file an updated status report not later than June 18, 2024. APPEARANCES WAIVED ON APRIL 23, 2024.

Tentative Ruling for July 2, 2024:

At trustee's request, direct clerk to close this adversary proceeding.

Chapter 11

1/9/23 -- Court approved stipulation continuing status conference to February 28, 2022 at 2:00 p.m. OFF CALENDAR FOR JANUARY 10, 2023.

Tentative Ruling for February 28, 2023:

Why is any of this still in bankruptcy court? Unless and until the state court avoids the foreclosure sale, the debtor no longer owns the real property that is its only asset. The plaintiff in this action, who is not the debtor, seeks to avoid a default judgment entered in another state as to which a sister state judgment was entered in California. This action arises entirely under nonbankruptcy law. There is no longer any need for an automatic stay or anything to which that stay would apply. Is this even an appropriate forum for the resolution of any disputes that may exist between Mr. Nix and parties asserting claims against the debtor? Hearing required.

Final Ruling for February 28, 2023:

Continue status conference to May 9, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. Parties should file joint status report by April 25, 2023. (Court's notes reflect that the parties had held off on conducting discovery to see the outcome of the state court litigation and that plaintiff may decide to dismiss this action in its entirety.)

Tentative Ruling for May 9, 2023:

According to the parties' status report, they agreed to settle this matter on April 24, 2023. What is the structure of the proposed settlement? Hearing required.

Final Ruling for May 9, 2023:

Parties still reporting that a settlement in principle has been reached. Continue status conference to July 11, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. Requirement of an updated status report for that conference is waived.

Has debtor been able to determine whether or not it will be necessary to seek approval of the proposed compromise or whether the parties will seek to dismiss case at this juncture instead? Hearing required.

Final Ruling for July 11, 2023:

Continue hearing to September 13, 2023 at 10:00 a.m. Status report waived. Parties have exchanged versions of settlement agreement. Once form of agreement finalized, debtor will file motion to approve compromise.

Tentative Ruling for September 13, 2023:

Has settlement agreement been executed? Will debtor be filing 9019 motion? Hearing required.

Tentative Ruling for November 15, 2023:

Revisit status of action after conclusion of related hearings on calendar.

Final Ruling for November 15, 2023:

There is a fully-signed settlement agreement between Curtis and the debtor. Counsel is "halfway through" preparing 9019 motion. Will submit it on negative notice and then prepare a motion to dismiss. Continue status conference to January 31, 2024 at 10:00 a.m. Court waived the requirement of a status report for that conference.

Tentative Ruling for January 30, 2024:

For some reason, motion for approval of compromise did not get filed until January 10, 2024. Deadline for filing opposition to motion ran on January 24, 2024. Court has a few questions/comments with regard to motion. Hearing required.

2024. Debtor intends to pay claims as they are resolved. Parties discussed compromise motion. Motion will be granted/settlement approved, subject to two conditions: debtor needs to file a copy of the settlement agreement; and order should clarify that debtor is not authorized to borrow from principal to make settlement payment. (Principal is free to contribute funds.) Debtor will upload revised order approving compromise. (Court entered order on February 2, 2024.) Continue status conference to April 2, 2024 at 2:00 p.m. to give the Court an opportunity to act on debtor's motion to dismiss.

Tentative Ruling for April 2, 2024:

Court has approved the settlement of this adversary proceeding. Has settlement payment been made? If not, why not?

Docket reflects filing of motion to dismiss on January 29, 2024, utilizing "notice and an opportunity for hearing" procedures. Oppositions were due 14 days after service. Proof of service reflects that service occurred on January 29, 2024. No oppositions are reflected on the docket. Why hasn't the debtor filed a notice of nonopposition and lodged an order granting the motion? Is there some reason that the debtor does not want to proceed with dismissal at this time? Hearing required.

Final Ruling for April 2, 2024:

Debtor's counsel represents that, once all the documents have been signed and payment has been made, he will lodge an order of dismissal. Court continued hearing to May 14, 2023 at 2:00 p.m. Requirement that a joint status report be filed is waived.

conduct a status conference in this matter on November 7, 2023 at 2:00 p.m.

Tentative Ruling for November 7, 2023:

This may be styled as an action by the debtor, but the substance of the action is an objection to claim -- an action for declaratory relief as to the extent to which creditor's proof of claim should be allowed as a general unsecured claim in this bankruptcy case. Defendant has filed a proof of claim and has therefore waived any right to a jury trial. As this is a core matter, the court can enter final orders, and creditor's consent is not required.

In the future, court would like the parties to use its mandatory joint status report form. How long do the parties need to complete their discovery? Do the parties contemplate any pretrial motions? Is this an appropriate matter to be sent to mediation?

Hearing required.

Tentative Ruling for January 9, 2024:

Why is the status report filed unilateral? Where is the declaration that should accompany a unilateral status report?

Continue status conference approximately 90 to 120 days and order parties to complete a day of mediation prior to date of continued status conference.

Final Ruling for January 9, 2024:

Court imposed sanctions of $250 on counsel for Intrepid for failing to cooperate in preparation of joint status report and failing to appear at January 9, 2024 status conference. Court continued status conference to January 30, 2024 and waived requirement that new status report be submitted.

There is a state court judgment against the debtor for fraud. Under the reasoning of the Supreme Court's decision in *Bartenwerfer v. Deny motion with regard to claim under section 523(a)(2)(A).

With regard to claims under section 523(a)(4), a debt for larceny or embezzlement can be the basis for nondischargeable liability. Defendant need not owe a fiduciary duty to plaintiff. Is it possible, on these facts, for plaintiff to plead that debtor's liability satisfies the elements of larceny or embezzlement? If so, grant motion with leave to amend. Otherwise, grant motion without leave to amend, as court agrees that, on these facts, there would be no preexisting fiduciary duty for the debtor to have breached.

Grant with leave to amend with regard to claim under section 523(a)(6). Debtor has a judgment against him for fraud and conversion. Such tortious conduct can be the basis for a claim under section 523(a)(6) in an appropriate fact pattern. Plaintiff needs to plead (and prove) that debtor had the appropriate intentions/knowledge in more than a mere conclusory manner. Plaintiff outlines the conduct that he claims evidences the willful and malicious intent, but he should discuss how these facts demonstrate that defendant either intended to cause harm to plaintiff or knew that harm was substantially certain to occur.

Deny motion to strike any material as scandalous or immaterial. Court will ignore anything that it later concludes is irrelevant, but court is not yet persuaded that the challenged information is in fact irrelevant, particularly in light of claim for willful and malicious injury.
