Docket 1

 VACATED  REASON: Adversary case dismissed 10/23/24

Tentative Ruling:

Ruling for January 30, 2024

The tentative is the final with regard to the dates and deadlines. Parties are ordered to mediation and must have conducted mediation by March 2024. The individual parties are ordered to attend in person. Plaintiff should submit an order for the judge to sign assigning the matter to mediation.

Tentative Ruling for January 30, 2024

The Court has reviewed the joint status report and is inclined to order the following:

Set the last day for discovery to be completed, including receiving responses to discovery requests as August 16, 2024.

Set the last day to join other parties, amend pleadings or seek leave to do either if leave is required as August 23, 2024.

Set the last day for case-dispositive motions to be filed by either party as September 10, 2024

Set a continued status conference for September 24, 2024, at 1:30 pm. Require an updated joint status report be filed and served no later than September 17, 2024.

Despite the disparity of views on whether the matter should be sent to mediation, the Court is inclined to do so. However, the Court intends to discuss this further and solicit the parties' views on the timing of such a mediation at the status conference.

Ruling for September 14, 2022

Continued to 11/16/22 @ 1:30 p.m. Parties to file joint status report by 11/9/22; if the parties believe they need more time to discuss resolution before Rule 16 deadlines are set, the status report may be a brief one-page statement. If disputes remain to be litigation, the parties should file the usual joint status report.
