#7.00 Defendants Motion To Dismiss Adversary
Proceeding For Lack Of Prosecution

fr. 12/4/23; 1/22/24; 3/11/24

Docket 76

Tentative Ruling:

Plaintiff has once again failed to file the required status report in time.
no pretrial stipulation was not filed
GRANT - CASE DISMISSED

Previous tentative:

Continued to 5/13 at 11 am. If no pretrial stipulation is submitted by 4/25, the court reserves the right to grant the dismissal for lack of prosecution at that time.

OLD TENTATIVE: (modified at hearing)

12/1 unilateral status report filed - APPEARANCE REQUIRED

There has been no response to the motion to dismiss and no status report filed by plaintiff as required before the status conference. There has been a complete lack of prosecution, and the last updates have been solely from defendant. The plaintiff is also a corporation and is required to be represented by counsel. Although the last counsel was relieved many months ago, no new counsel has filed an appearance. Plaintiff was on notice that counsel was withdrawing since last March, so they have had over 8 months to get new counsel. For the above reasons, the defendant's motion is granted. Defendant should lodge an order.

As there was no opposition filed, NO APPEARANCE IS NECESSARY
