Tentative Ruling:

Tentative for 1/7/26:

This matter is CONTINUED to January 22, 2026, at 10:00 a.m. in light of the statements in the Reply filed December 31, 2025 [Dk. 177] and to allow affected parties a reasonable opportunity to review or respond to any revisions to the Plan and Disclosure Statement.

Moreover, the Amended Disclosure Statement filed December 23, 2025 [Dk. 169] describes the anticipated sale process for the Debtors' real property, including proposed marketing efforts, broker engagement, trustee discretion, and certain procedural milestones. However, the Amended Disclosure Statement continues to rest on unresolved assumptions concerning property valuation, entitlement outcomes, and the treatment of the secured creditor, all of which materially affect both the availability of funds for distribution and the timing of distributions to creditor classes. On the present record, the Court lacks a sufficient factual basis to conclude that creditors have been provided "adequate information" within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

The Amended Disclosure Statement also does not sufficiently explain the scope, duration, and legal effect of the Plan's post-confirmation injunction and exculpation provisions. As drafted, the Plan characterizes certain post-confirmation restraints as an extension of the automatic stay, provides for a fixed twenty-four-month post-confirmation injunction, and includes permanent injunction and exculpation provisions that may materially affect creditors' enforcement rights and remedies. Without clearer explanation of the legal basis for these provisions, the rights being restrained, and the circumstances under which creditors may seek relief, creditors cannot meaningfully evaluate the Plan or the rights they are being asked to relinquish. The Court does not reach, and need not reach at this stage, whether such provisions are ultimately confirmable, but only whether the Amended Disclosure Statement provides sufficient information for creditors to understand their scope and effect for purposes of solicitation.

To facilitate further review, any further Amended Disclosure Statement should include sufficiently concrete, decision-enabling information to permit creditors to evaluate the Amended Plan, including, as applicable:

- clarification of how different valuation or entitlement outcomes would affect the amount and timing of distributions to each creditor class, particularly in light of the Plan's waterfall structure;
- clarification of the anticipated timing of distributions under alternative sale or entitlement scenarios;
- clarification of the scope, duration, and legal basis of the Plan's post-confirmation injunction and exculpation provisions, as disclosed, and how those provisions affect creditors' rights and remedies during the liquidation process; and
- to the extent Debtors rely on consultations with parties in interest, a clear identification of the issues raised and how those issues were addressed, or an opportunity for parties to respond on the record.

Any further amendments shall be filed no later than January 9, 2026. Any oppositions shall be filed no later than January 15, 2026. Any replies shall be filed no later than 12:00 p.m. on January 20, 2026.

Appearances for the January 7, 2026 hearing will not be permitted.

#41.00

Hearing RE: Motion By Wenqiang Bian ("Bian") As Trustee Of The Bian Living Trust Dated May 7, 2010 For Order Dismissing Debtor's Chapter 11 Case (Motion filed 12/6/2025)

Docket 21

Tentative Ruling:

Tentative for 1/7/26:

The Court is inclined to appoint a Chapter 11 trustee for the foregoing reasons.

Based on the totality of the circumstances, the Court is inclined to find that cause exists under 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b)(1). Lack of good faith constitutes cause for relief under § 1112(b). In re Marsch, 36 F.3d 825, 828 (9th Cir. 1994). Whether a case was filed in good faith depends on an “amalgam of factors” evaluated under the totality of the circumstances. Id. (quoting In re Arnold, 806 F.2d 937, 939 (9th Cir. 1986)).

This is a single-asset real estate case filed on the morning of a scheduled nonjudicial foreclosure, after an arbitrator in a pending multi-party JAMS arbitration lifted restraints on foreclosure due to Debtor’s failure to comply with imposed conditions. Debtor has no ongoing business operations, no employees, no income, and no assets other than a single parcel of vacant real property. The unsecured creditor body is minimal. On this record, the case appears to function primarily as a two-party dispute concerning lien enforcement and forum selection, rather than as a good-faith effort to reorganize an operating enterprise. See In re St. Paul Self Storage Ltd. P’ship, 185 B.R. 580, 582–83 (9th Cir. BAP 1995); In re Stolrow’s, Inc., 84 B.R. 167, 171 (9th Cir. BAP 1988).

Debtor’s Opposition [Dk. 28] relies on anticipated future developments and asserted progress toward entitlements, but does not present competent evidentiary support, a filed plan, committed financing, or a concrete timeline for reorganization. A debtor's reliance on speculative future events does not establish a reasonable likelihood of rehabilitation sufficient to overcome cause for dismissal. See St. Paul Self Storage, 185 B.R. at 583. Nor does LendSpark's Response [Dk. 29] provide any competent evidence on the issue.

The Court is inclined to find that these circumstances align with the commonly recognized indicia of bad faith in single-asset real estate cases, including a filing on the eve of foreclosure, the absence of cash flow or operations, and the lack of a realistic reorganization trajectory. See id.; In re Stolrow's, Inc., 84 B.R. 167, 171 (9th Cir. B.A.P. 1988). The filing also follows a pattern reflected in multiple related cases previously administered by this Court involving affiliated, single-purpose real estate entities controlled by the same principals, each filing in proximity to creditor enforcement activity. While those prior matters arose in differing procedural postures and are not dispositive here, they provide relevant context in evaluating Debtor's filing under the totality-of-the-circumstances standard governing good faith under § 1112(b).

Although dismissal would ordinarily follow from these findings, in the Reply [Dk. 30], Movant expressly supports the senior secured creditor's position favoring appointment of a trustee.

Accordingly, the Court is inclined to appoint a Chapter 11 trustee pursuant to § 1104(a) rather than immediately dismiss the case. Appointment of a trustee would remove control from current management and permit an independent assessment of entitlement status, feasibility, and whether any value-preserving path forward exists. The Court emphasizes that appointment of a trustee is not a determination that reorganization is feasible, and the Court reserves the right to revisit dismissal or conversion following the trustee's report.

The parties should be prepared to discuss the foregoing.

Virtual appearances are required. The hearing will take place using Zoom for Government, a free service that provides audioconference and videoconference capabilities. Only the parties, including counsels, their
