#10.00 Motion for relief from stay

[Real Prop] Sean C. Ferry, attorney/movant

FROM: 2-28-19

Docket 50

Tentative Ruling:

03/04/2019:

None.

Final Ruling. This motion for relief from the automatic stay has been set for hearing on regular notice pursuant to Rule 9013-1(d)(2) of the Local Bankruptcy Rules. Pursuant to Rule 9013-1(h), the failure of the trustee, the debtor and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing is construed as consent to the granting of the motion. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Furthermore, because the court is granting the relief requested by the moving party and for which a prima facie case has been established, an actual hearing is not necessary. See Boone v. Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Parties who have been properly served with the motion are considered in default and, as a consequence, the matter will be resolved without oral argument. See Rule 9013-1(j)(3). No appearance is necessary.

For the reasons set forth in the motion, the Court hereby finds that sufficient grounds exist to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to

Counsel for the moving party shall prepare and upload a proposed order after the date and time of the hearing but no later than seven days thereafter. See LBR 9021-1(b)(1)(B) (stating that proposed orders shall be submitted "within 7 days" of the hearing but "must not be lodged prior to the hearing . . .").

FROM: 2-28-19

Docket 8

Tentative Ruling:

03/04/2019:

The hearing regarding this motion shall be heard on shortened notice and any opposition is due at the hearing. Therefore, appearances are required at the hearing.

The motion requests relief from the automatic stay to complete an eviction. Using a bankruptcy case to delay an eviction is not appropriate. See, e.g., In re Smith, 105 B.R. 50, 53 & 55 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1989) (describing cases filed to delay an eviction as “abusive” and designed to “delay improperly the landlord from obtaining possession of his property.”). Therefore, the tentative ruling of the court is to grant the motion pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(d)(1) and 362(d)(2) with the following relief:

(1) Termination of the stay to allow movant (and any successors or assigns) to proceed under applicable non-bankruptcy law to enforce its remedies to obtain possession of the property.

Chapter 13

#32.00 Confirmation of Chapter 13 Plan

FROM: 2-6-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

03/04/2019:

On January 23, 2019, the debtor appeared at a meeting of creditors. Later that day, counsel for the debtor and the chapter 13 trustee appeared at a status conference at 1:30 p.m. and reported an agreement between all appearing parties to confirm the chapter 13 plan filed in this bankruptcy case. The agreed terms of confirmation were recited on the record. The Court provided counsel for the debtor and the trustee with a proposed form of order which contained their agreed upon terms and which they approved on the record.

In the interim, the Court has reviewed the docket and no objection to confirmation has been filed. Nor has any other pleading been filed since the status conference which would appear to impact the terms of confirmation recited at the status conference. Accordingly, the Court assumes the debtor still concurs with the confirmation terms recited on the record at the status conference and, therefore, the Court hereby excuses the debtor and counsel for the debtor from appearing at the confirmation hearing. No appearances by the debtor or counsel for the debtor are required at the confirmation hearing.

If the trustee, a creditor or any other party appears at the confirmation hearing (or the status conference) and requests that the Court take action adverse to the debtor (i.e. deny confirmation, dismiss the case or otherwise take any action other than confirm the plan on the agreed terms set forth on the record at the status conference), the Court will not do so in the absence of counsel for the debtor. Instead, under those circumstances, the Court would continue the matter a week or two and provide an opportunity for the debtor and counsel for the debtor to appear and address such matters.

#37.00 Hrg re status conference regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan

FROM: 1-23-19

Docket 2

Tentative Ruling:

03/04/2019:

The Court has posted a ruling regarding confirmation of the chapter 13 plan. Pursuant to that ruling, no appearances are required by the debtor or counsel for the debtor at the confirmation hearing. Likewise, no appearances are required today at the status conference. Neither the debtor nor counsel for the debtor should appear today.

However, the Court would like to confer with the debtor once about the confirmed plan in order to (1) insure its essential requirements are understood by the debtor, (2) discuss the important payment issues, (3) answer any questions of the debtor and (4) address any other pertinent issues. A discussion with the debtor should increase the debtor's understanding of the case and increase the chances of success in the case. The debtor did not appear at the prior status conference and, for scheduling reasons, appearing today will not likely be practicable (given the caseload volume expected for today).

Therefore, the Court hereby continues the status conference to May 8, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. The debtor must appear at the continued status conference at that date and time. Counsel for the debtor is welcome to attend (and encouraged to do so). However, counsel for the debtor is not required to appear at the continued status conference. Prior to the status conference, counsel for the debtor should provide the debtor with an entered copy of the order confirming the chapter 13 plan and the debtor should bring a copy of that order to the status conference.

If the designated date and time (May 8, 2019 at 11:00 a.m.) presents a

So, in summary, the status conference is continued to May 8, 2019 at 11:00 a.m. and neither the debtor nor their counsel should appear today.
